Spotlight:

This issue we highlight our own Ken Gemmill. Ken joined Reed Technology, our parent company, in 1989 and transferred to REEDFAX in 1999. Ken has been active in improving and developing many of our products such as our electronic File Histories, Japanese Machine Translations and our Prior Art Search services. Ken also represents us at various industry tradeshows throughout the year. When not at work, Ken & his wife, Lorie, actively support youth sports, especially Little League Baseball & Softball.

REEDFAX at the AIPLA annual meeting:

If you are attending the AIPLA annual meeting in Washington D.C., be sure to stop by and visit us in booth #31. Several Reedfax representatives will be on hand with product information, give-aways, and a prize drawing. We'd love to meet you, so stop by!

German T2 Patent Documents:

We often get orders for German T2 documents (DE-T's). A German T2 is a translation into German of a granted EP patent. Germany requires applicants to submit translations into their official language (German) before the protection becomes fully effective. The published T2 document will list both the German national number, along with the EP number (see picture). If you order a German T2 document with REEDFAX, we'll check the EP-B – and if it is in English, we'll notify you. Of course, if you prefer the German – we'll deliver it.

– over 6,600,000

Size of the patent data held by REEDFAX:

– over 10 terabytes.

Prior Art Searches from REEDFAX:

Whether you need high-tech expert analysis, or a routine novelty search – REEDFAX delivers expert results. Our patent searchers are subject matter experts in fields such as biology and biotechnology, chemistry and chemical engineering, computer hardware and software, electronics, micro-fabrication, photonics, and physics. Your patent searches will be performed by a searcher that intimately understands the subject matter of your search - not a layperson.

Our patent search reports are competitively priced, and come with expert commentary on each cited patent, not just a list of patent numbers. The result? Outstanding patent searches that save you time by summarizing relevant portions of prior art, while providing the highest possible degree of accuracy.

While supplies last, receive two BLOCKBUSTER entertainment cards with your Prior-art search order!!

Thinking Prior-Art Search? Think REEDFAX.
